

Understanding Admissions to the Illinois Department of Juvenile Justice from Winnebago County

Presented by

David E. Olson, Ph.D. (dolson1@luc.edu)

Center for Criminal Justice Research, Policy and Practice &
Department of Criminal Justice & Criminology

&

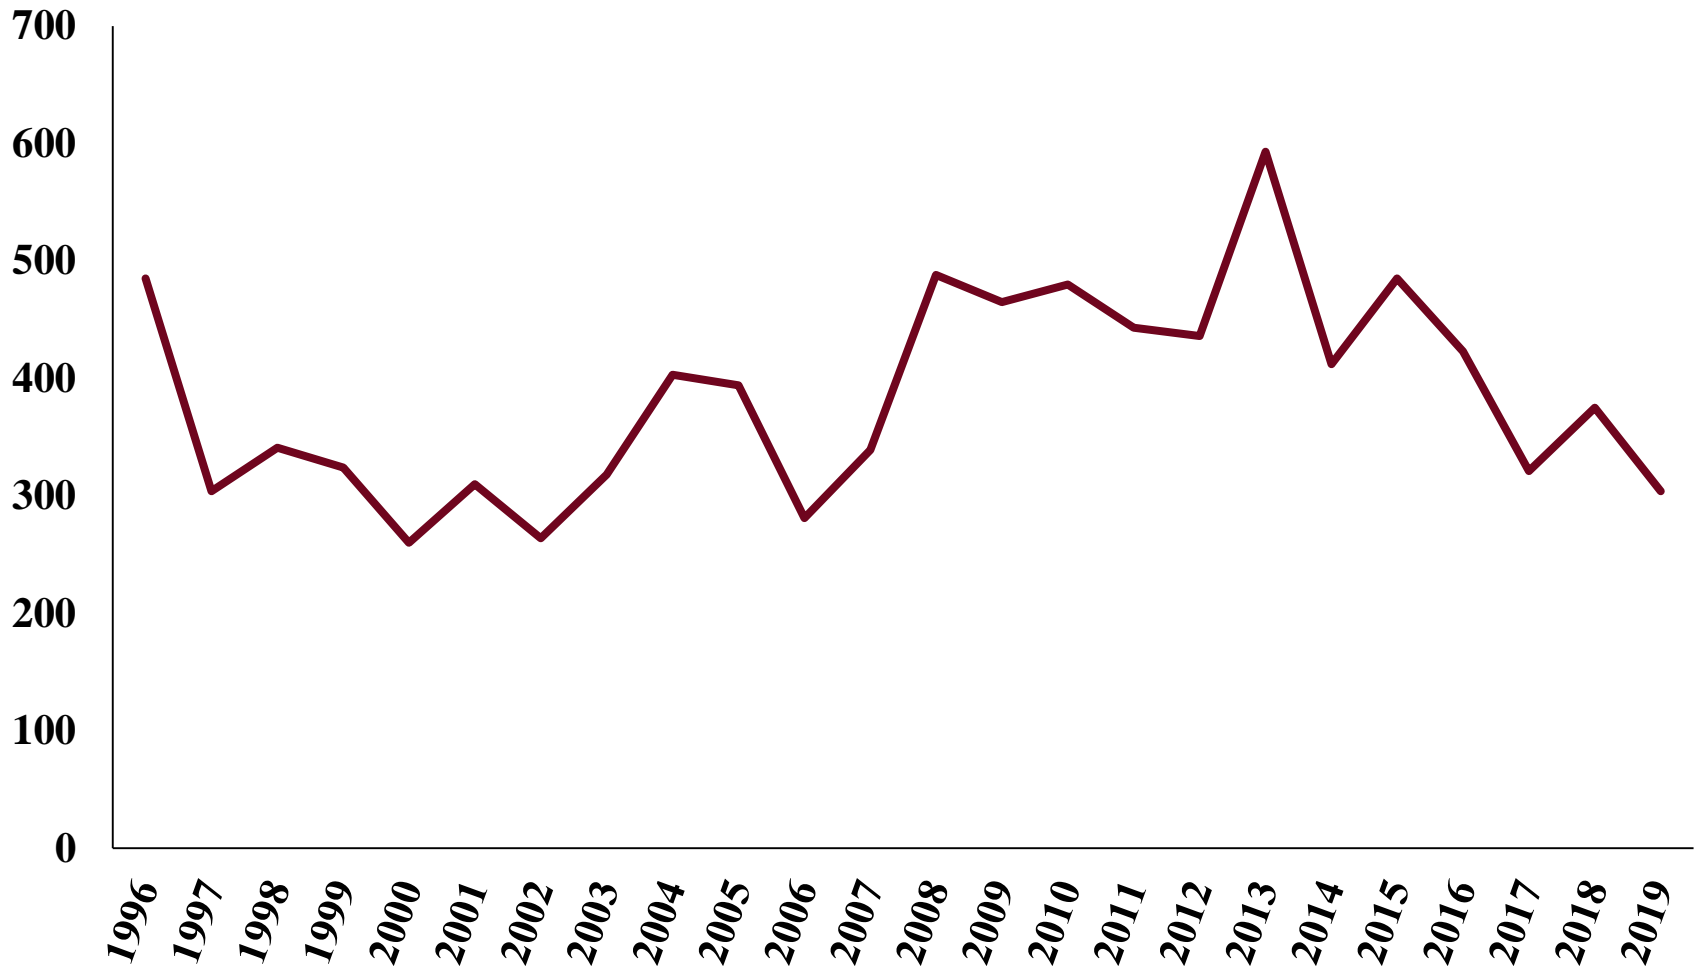

NeAngela Dixon (NeAngela.Dixon@illinois.gov), Illinois
Department of Juvenile Justice

Presented to the Winnebago County
Criminal Justice Coordinating Council

March, 11th 2020

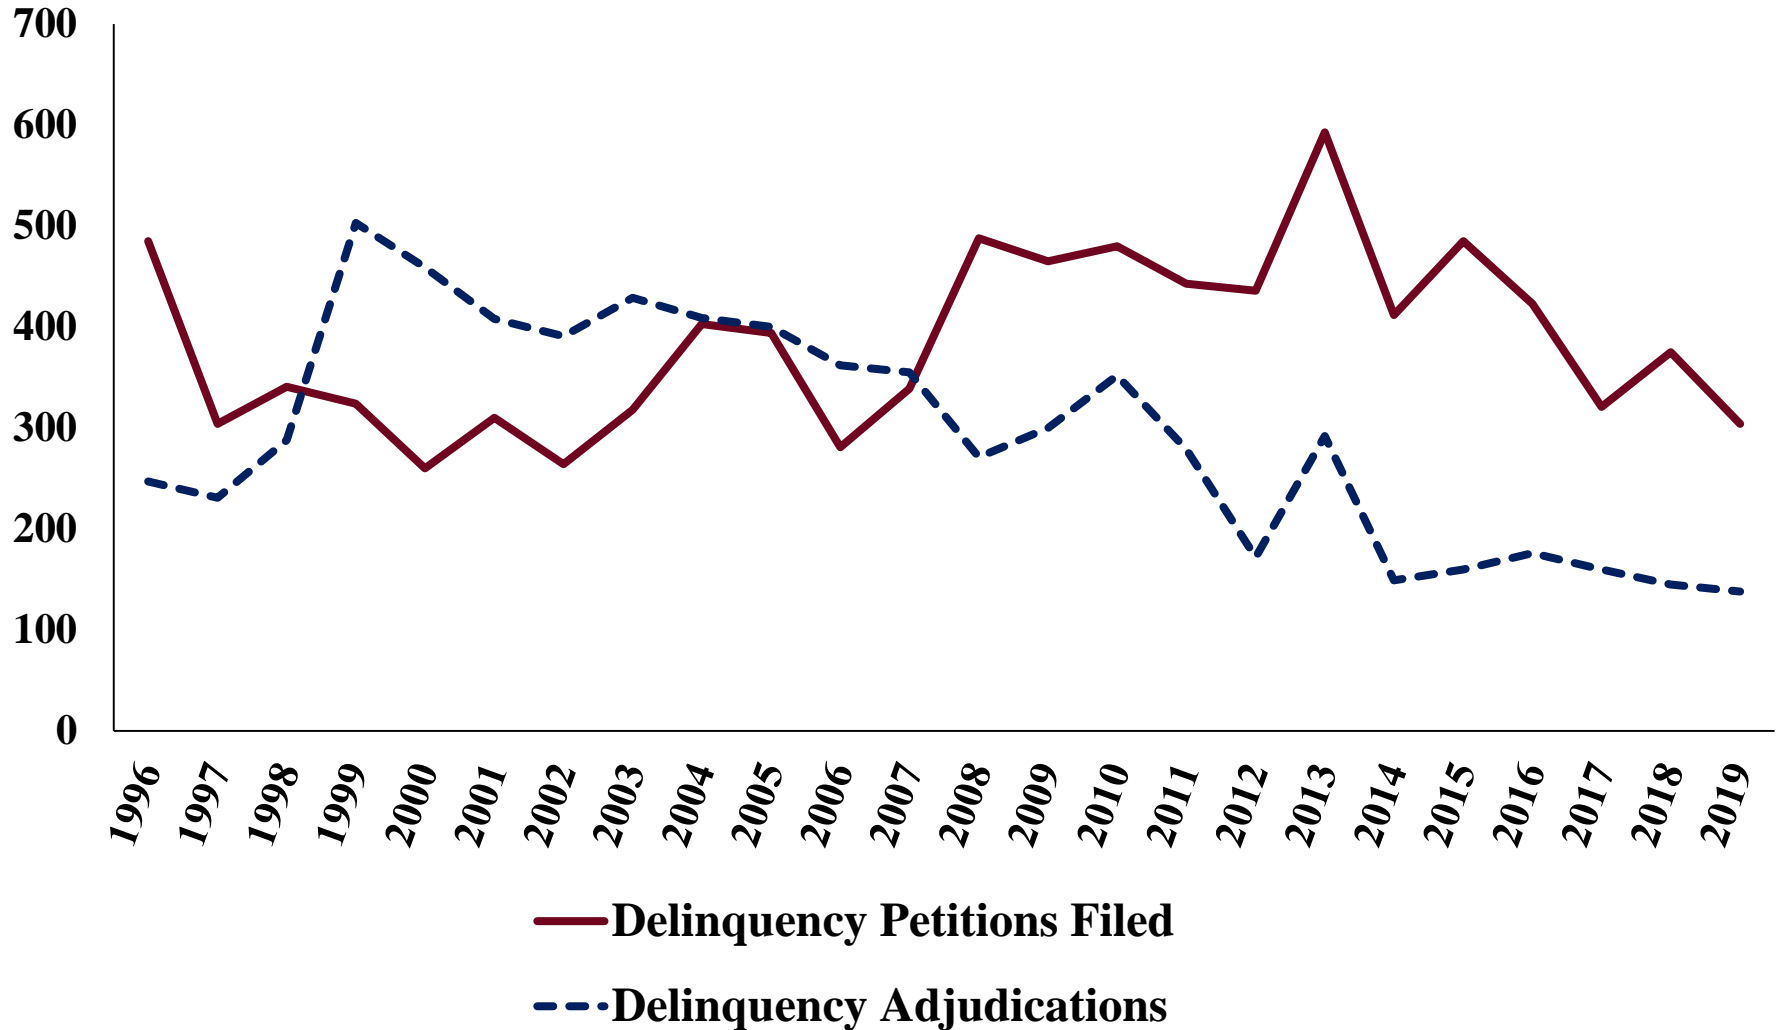

Delinquency Petitions Filed in Winnebago County, SFY 1996-2019

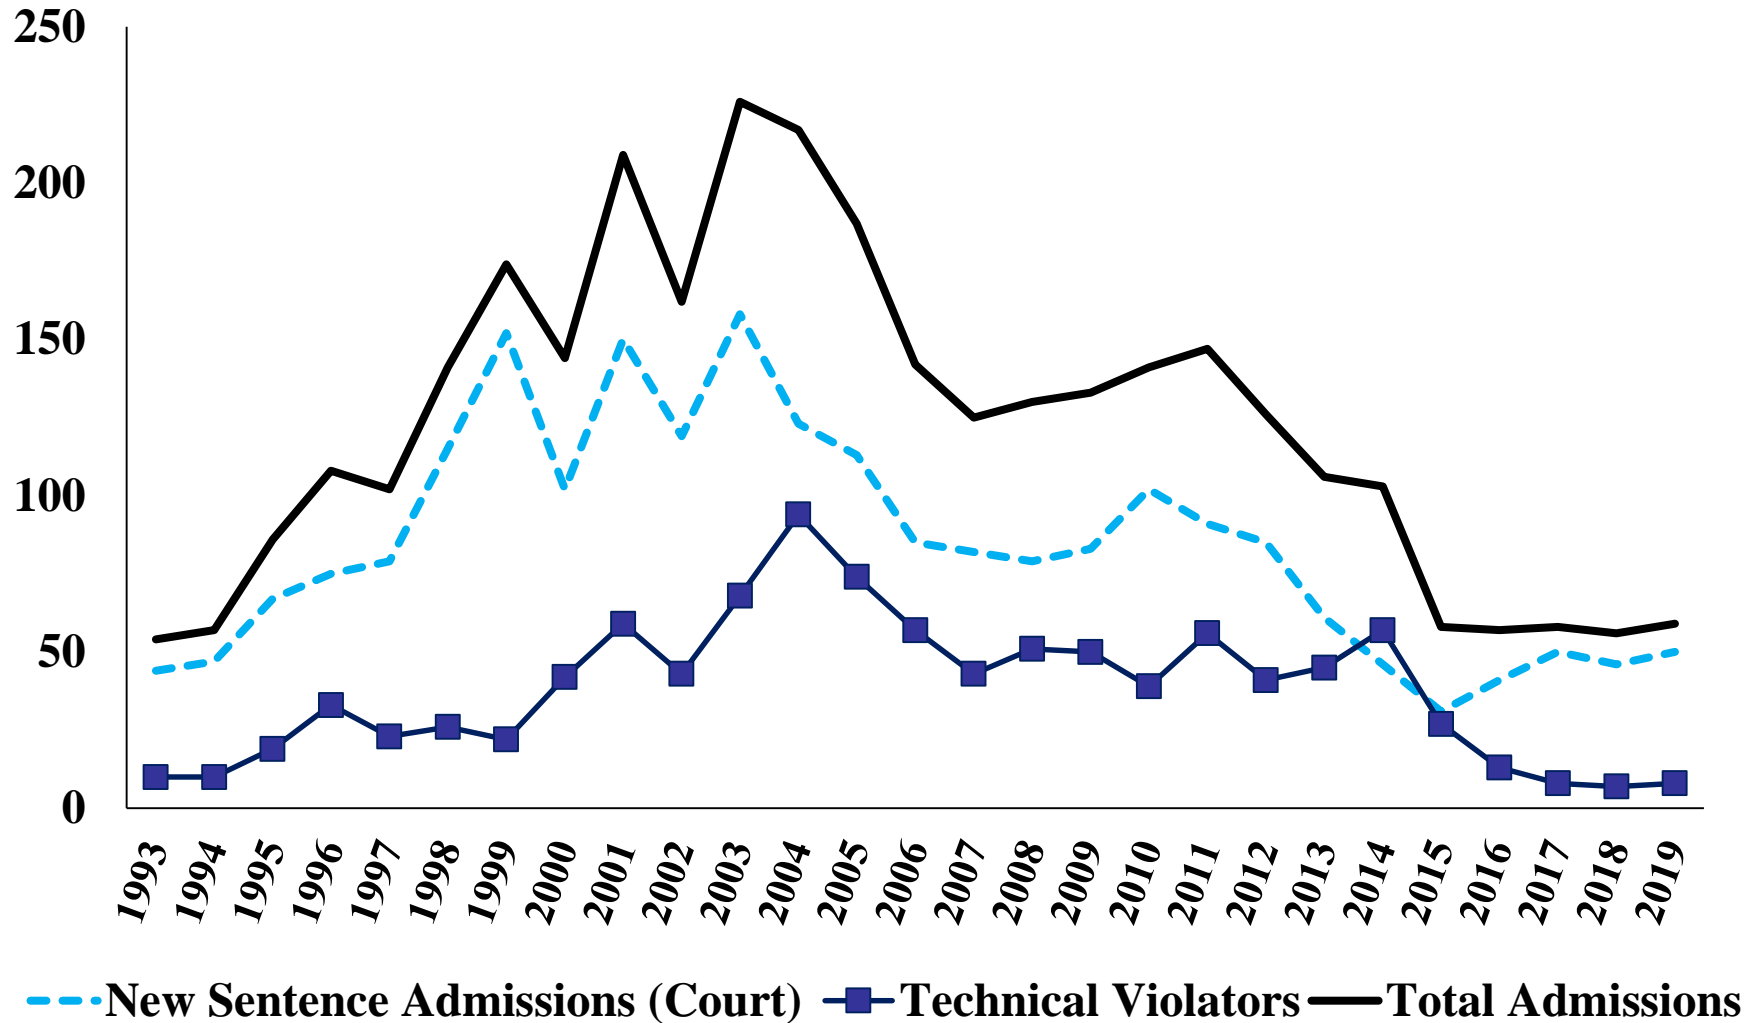

Source: Analyses by Loyola's Center for Criminal Justice Research, Policy & Practice of AOIC data and data provided by the 17th Judicial Circuit Court of the State of Illinois.

Delinquency Petitions Filed and Adjudicated 1996 to 2019

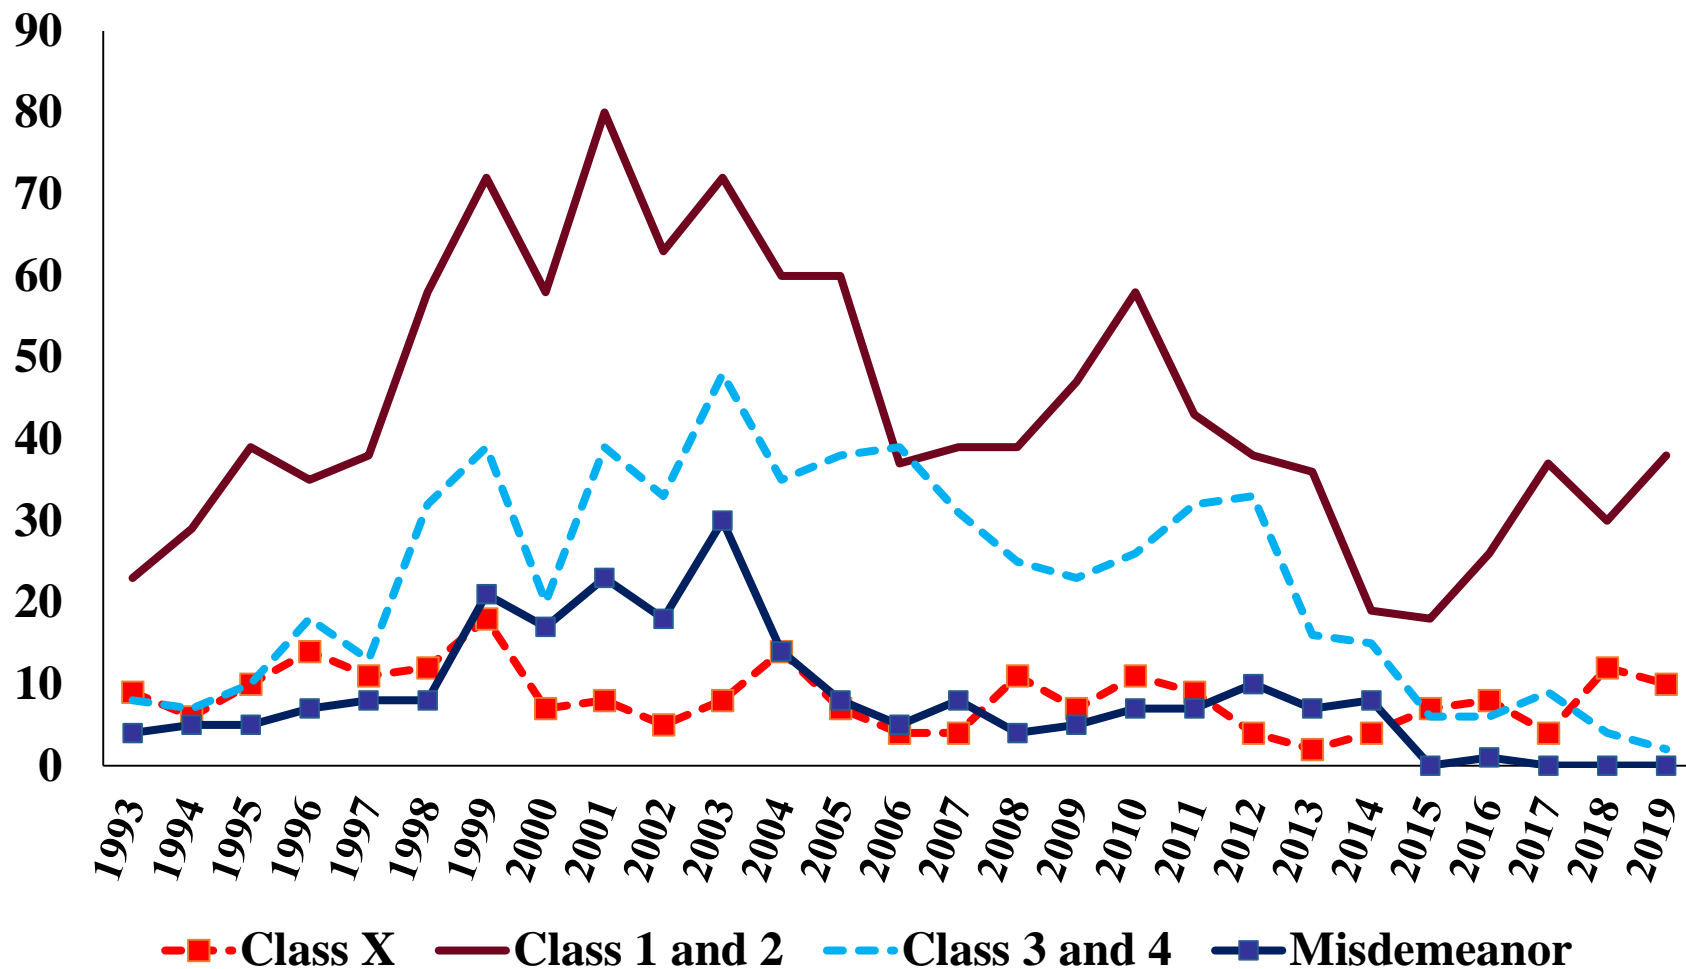

Source: Analyses by Loyola's Center for Criminal Justice Research, Policy & Practice of data published or provided by Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts.

Admissions to IDJJ from Winnebago County, by Type, SFY 1993-2019

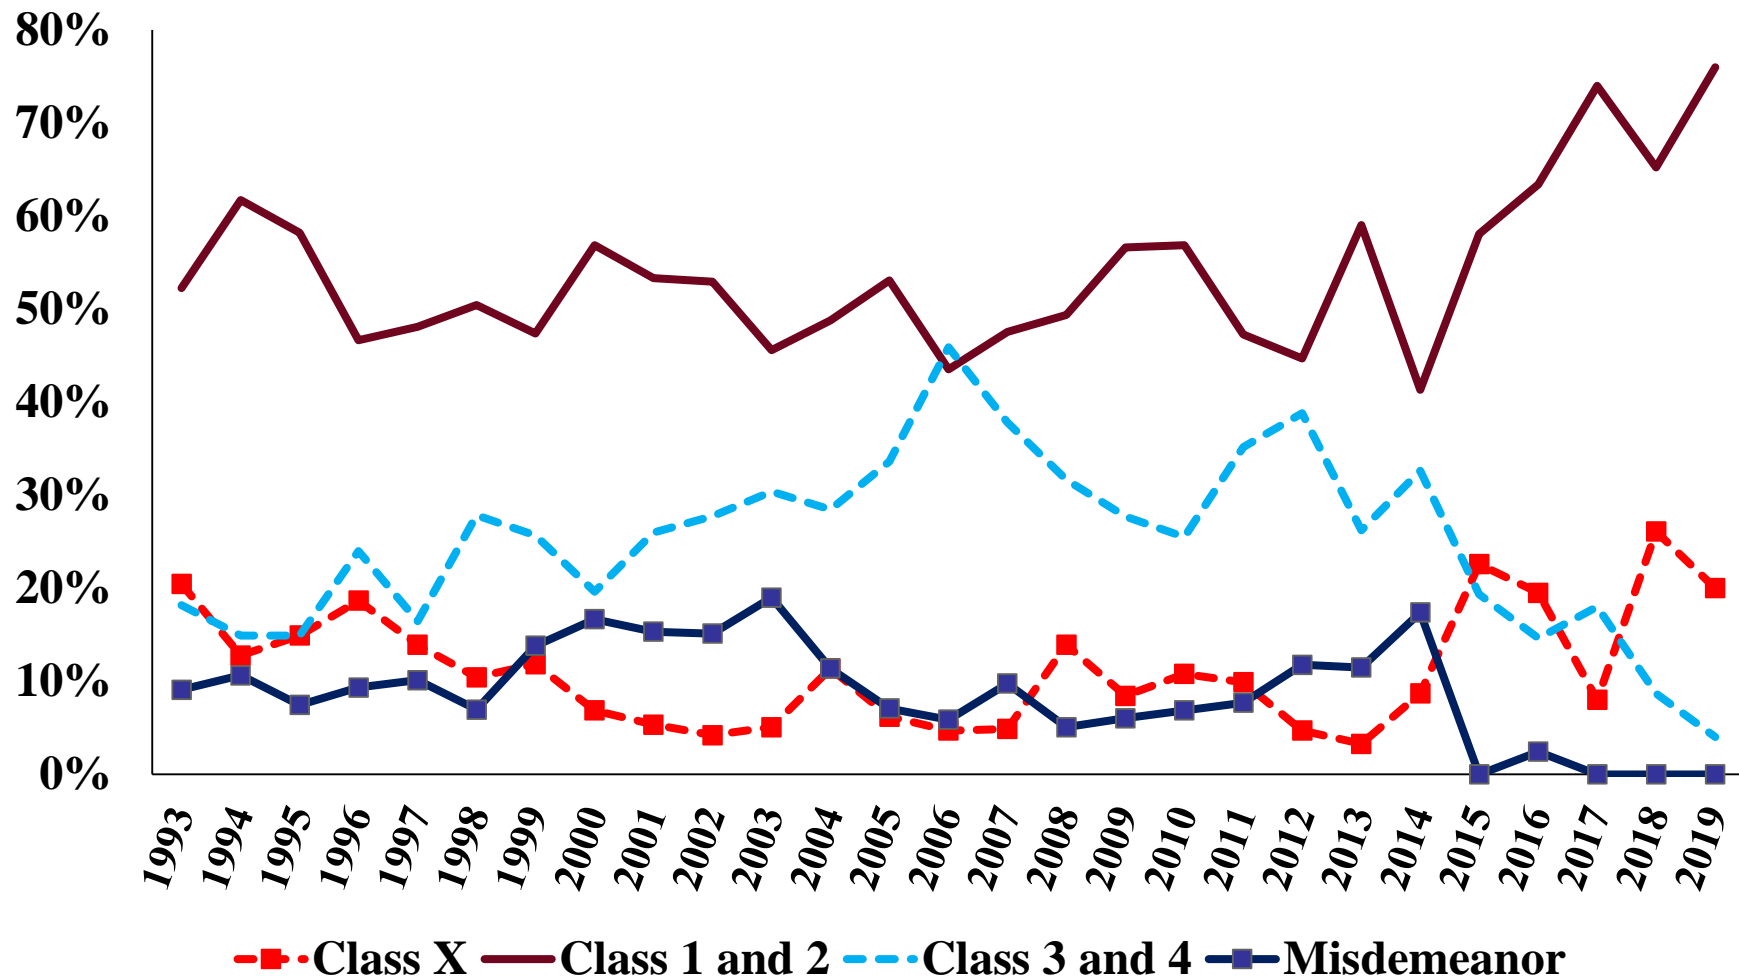

Source: Analyses by Loyola's Center for Criminal Justice Research, Policy & Practice of data provided by the Illinois Department of Juvenile Justice.

Court Admissions to IDJJ from Winnebago County, by Offense Class, SFY 1993-2019

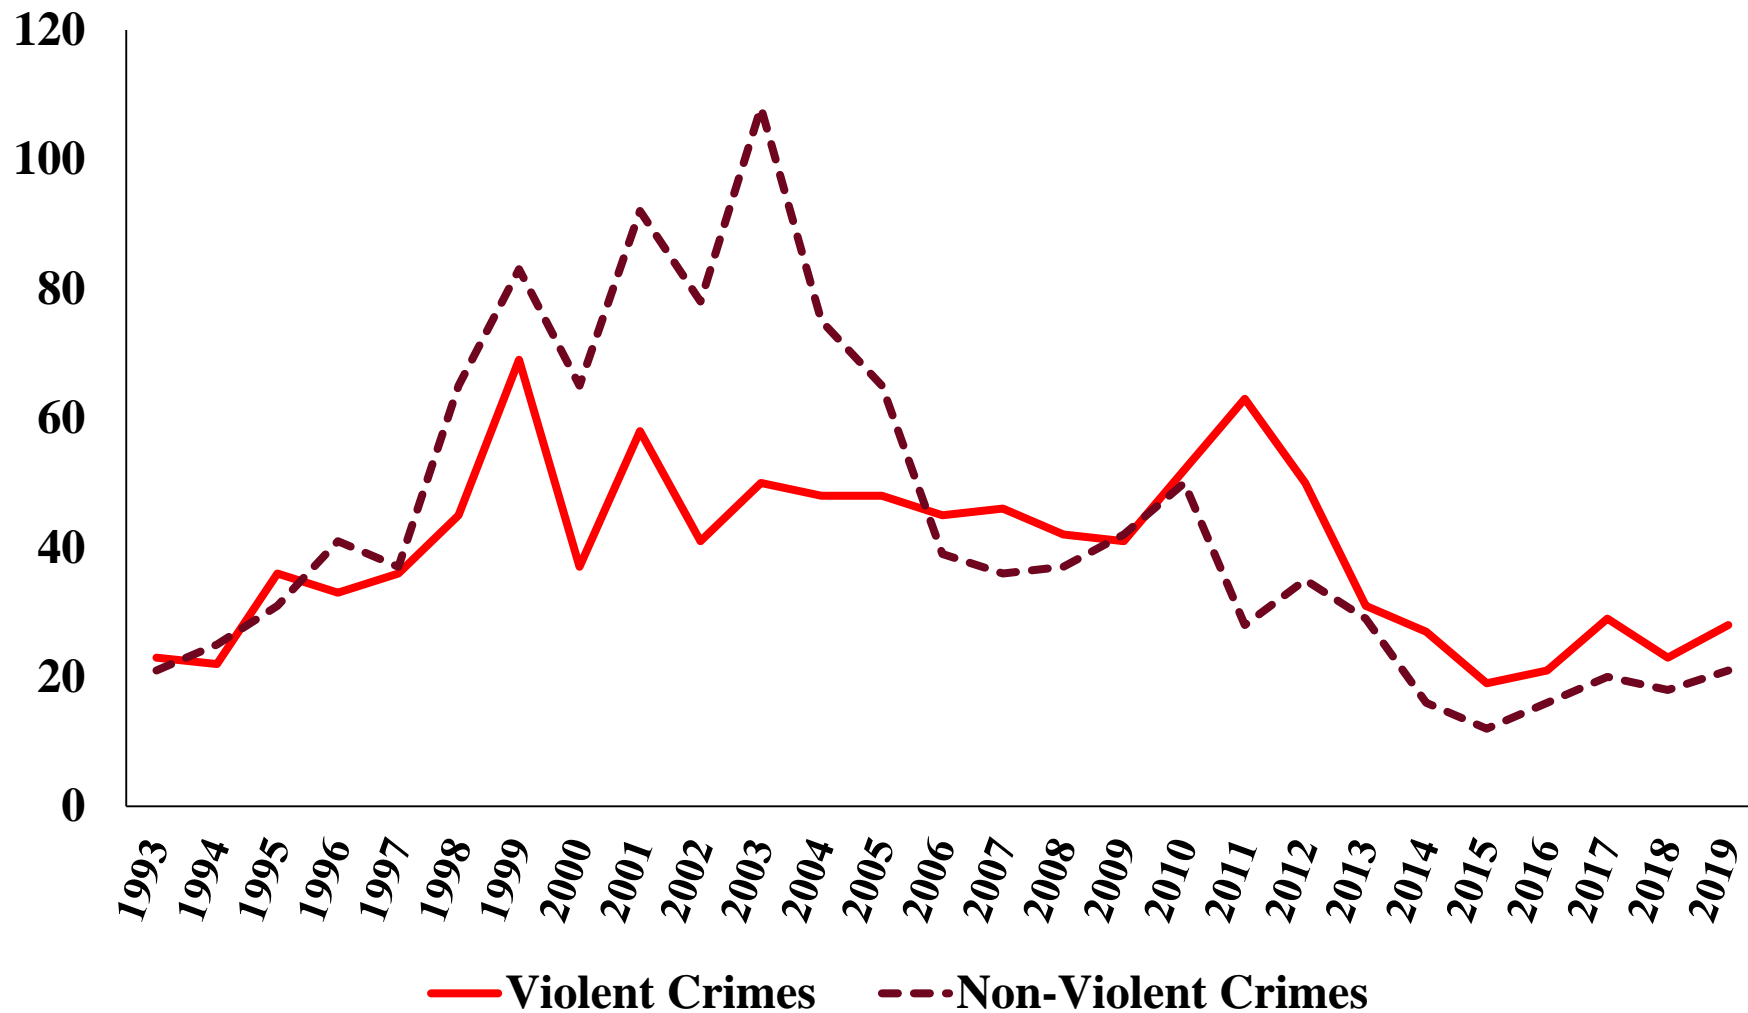

Source: Analyses by Loyola's Center for Criminal Justice Research, Policy & Practice of data provided by the Illinois Department of Juvenile Justice.

Percent of Court Admissions to IDJJ from Winnebago County, by Crime Class

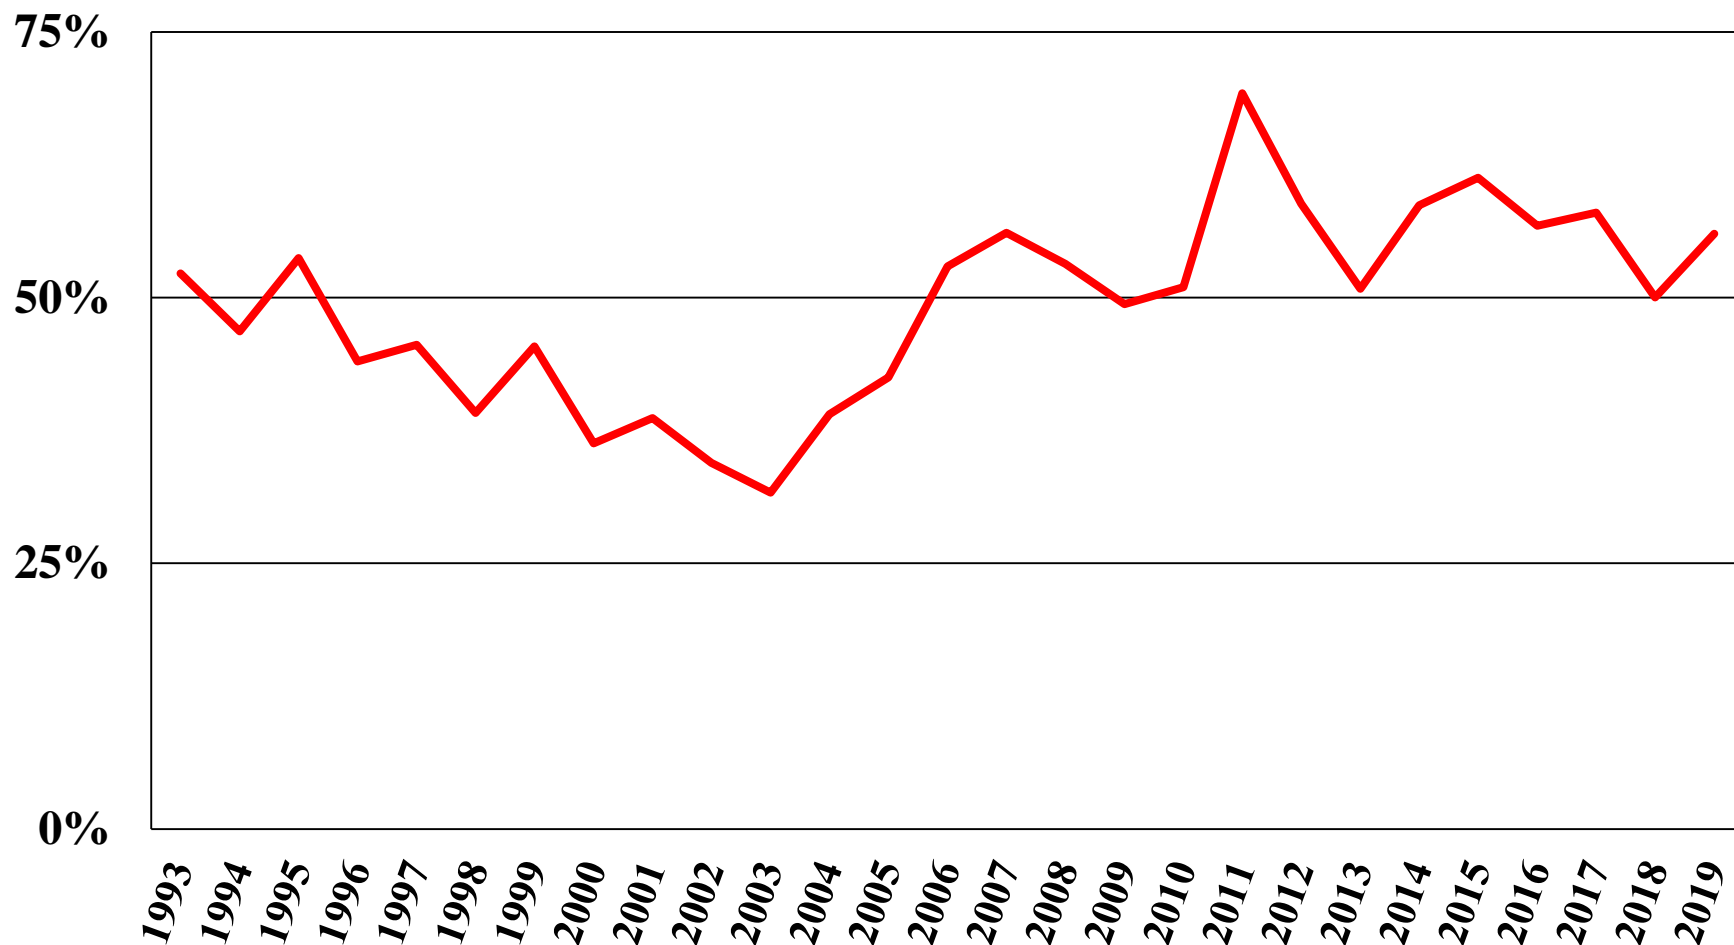

Source: Analyses by Loyola's Center for Criminal Justice Research, Policy & Practice of data provided by the Illinois Department of Juvenile Justice.

Court Admissions to IDJJ from Winnebago County, Violent vs. Non-Violent Offense

Source: Analyses by Loyola's Center for Criminal Justice Research, Policy & Practice of data provided by the Illinois Department of Juvenile Justice.

Percent of Juvenile Court Admissions to IDJJ from Winnebago County For Violent Offenses

Source: Analyses by Loyola's Center for Criminal Justice Research, Policy & Practice of data provided by the Illinois Department of Juvenile Justice.

Conclusions

- As a result of fewer delinquency cases & adjudications in Winnebago County, commitments to IDJJ have decreased 50% since 2010;
- An increasing share of commitments to IDJJ from Winnebago County are for violent offenses and more serious felony class offenses;